

Year 11 GCSE English Literature Easter revision

Lord of the Flies, Sign of Four, Macbeth

Compulsory:	Tick complete
1) Quotes booklet.
2) Memorise quotations.
Advised:
1) Re-read all or sections of the text. Use an audiobook if necessary.
2) Use the pack of essay questions and create mini plans. You will be completing these essays in your lessons when you return; if you've already planned them, this will be a lot easier.
3) Use Sparknotes, BBC Bitesize, LitCharts, Mr Bruff as your primary sources for online revision websites .
4) Use the lists of key contextual areas to refresh your knowledge of how these relate to the text.

Year 11 GCSE English Language Easter revision

Paper 1 and Paper 2

Compulsory:	Tick complete
CGP English Language workbook Pages set by teacher:
CGP Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar workbook Pages set by teacher:
Advised
Look through your exercise books and class work, revising the guidelines on how to answer each question.
Familiarise yourself with the structure and timings of both papers (the mock papers you did in January are on the school website).
If you want to do a paper, there are examples at the back of the CGP English Language workbook. You will be doing practice papers in class when you return.

Power and Conflict Poetry (English Lit exam)

Compulsory:	Tick complete
Re-read each poem and memorise 4 quotes for each. Use the guides below to revise the context behind each poem. Fill in the Revision Grid to show your teacher.
Create essay plans for the practice questions.
Advised:
Look through the Power and Conflict revision guide given to you before the January mocks.
Look through the new Power and Conflict study guide given to you before Easter holidays.
Go online and watch Mr Bruff, BBC Bitesize and any other useful websites to enhance your understanding.

Unseen Poetry (English Lit exam)

Compulsory:	Tick complete
Create essay plans for the practice questions. There are four in total.	