InvestIN Careers

INVESTIN

InvestIN are an organisation that we work with who provide young people with immersive experiences in their dream careers, via a series of workshops with professionals that happen at weekends and throughout the school holidays. They also provide webinars, talks and resources which can help you find out what you need to do to get on their right path to your dream career.

Experiences happening this summer are here: <https://investin.org/pages/choose-your-career?filter=stem>

They have recently launched a roadmap to help students identify the careers that are right for them, find out what skills they need to develop and the steps that they need to take to get on the right road. These resources really help to demystify the process and students can make a realistic plan of how they are going to get there. We will look at this with Year 9 during assembly next week.

<https://investin.org/blogs/news/spring-into-success-careers-roadmap>

For everyone who accesses the map InvestIN will donate to Unicef's appeal for Ukraine.

InvestIN are also running a careers competition. Every student who enters will qualify for a CV writing workshop and the winner will win access to their Ambition X careers platform. For more information follow the link here: <https://investin.org/blogs/news/careers-week-competition>

Author *Colleen
Paeff* visits Year 6

American author Colleen Paeff visited our library this week to speak to Year 6 about the process of picture book writing. She has recently published 'The Great Stink,' a picture book which explores Victorian engineer Joseph Bazalgette's quest to build infrastructure that would rid London of sewage and cholera outbreaks.

<https://www.simonandschuster.com/books/The-Great-Stink/Colleen-Paeff/9781534449299>

You can visit Crossness Pumping Station in South London which is featured in the book

<https://www.crossness.org.uk/>

Students loved her presentation and asked her many questions about non-fiction writing. It took her two years in total to write and research the book. She had the idea from reading a history book on the Victorians. She used the British library online archive and Illustrated London News .

She talked about the process of working with the illustrator, who was inspired by the gruesome illustrations that appeared in the news at that time.

Source: Punch https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:The\_silent\_highwayman.jpg

She also shared her best writing and research tips, which was great timing as Year 6 will write their own pieces after Easter.

Colleen's research tips:

PICTURE BOOKS CAN PROVIDE A GREAT OVERVIEW

LIST THE MOST IMPORTANT FACTS

NOTE YOUR SOURCES

CREATE A WORD LIST AS YOU GO

For writing she advises creating a 'Super stinky first draft' of your work and improving it after getting feedback from your classmates. Have a look at her website here: <https://www.colleenpaeff.com>. The 'Great Stink' is available to borrow from the library or to order on Amazon.

by Nicky Javadzadeh (Hybrid Y9)

Nowruz or “new day” in English is the Iranian new year. Celebrated at the exact moment of the spring equinox, this is a secular festival with roots that go back over 3,000 years. It was shaped by people of the Zoroastrian faith, believed to be the world’s oldest religion.

The celebration of Nowruz dates back to at least the 11th century A.D. In the Shahnameh a text that dates to the first century, the story of King Jamshid is told as part of the Nowruz origin story.

King Jamshid, the fourth king in an imagined dynasty, is introduced as the kindest and most knowledgeable ruler of Persia, the region that stretched from what is modern Turkey to Pakistan. Jamshid is referred to in Zoroastrian texts from the first century as well.

The Shahnameh tells the story of a king who was very sensitive not only to his subjects but also to the rhythms of the Earth. King Jamshid noticed that during the long, dark winter months, his subjects descended into darkness as the Earth worked to heal itself from the harvests of the fall.

When spring finally came and the Earth began to blossom after the healing period of winter, the king wanted to mark that as the start of the new year. A time of new beginnings for people and the Earth. But King Jamshid also noticed that during those dark winter months, many of his subjects had started to quarrel with one another, and injustice threatened to take over. The king decided to mark the beginning of Nowruz with a festival called Shab-e-Charshanbe Souri, which translates as “Scarlet Wednesday.”

Jumping over a succession of fires is a part of the festivity. A Zoroastrian custom that celebrates fire as a symbol of eternal strength and health. The purpose of Charshanbeh-Souri is to jump over the fires in order to cleanse oneself of the physical, mental, and societal problems that have plagued one in the previous year. It's a way of getting ready for Nowruz, the Persian New Year. It's also a season of forgiving. Joining hands to jump over the flames is one approach to repair rifts that threaten to fracture families throughout the world.

The day after Charshanbeh-Souri, families begin preparing their homes for Nowruz. They set a table called the haft-seen which translates to "seven S's." At the center of the table are seven items that begin with the letter S, each holding a particular significance.

Seeb (apple) is the symbol of beauty, Seer (garlic) is the symbol of health and medicine, Somagh (sumac) represents sunrise, Sabzeh (green grass) represents healing and rebirth of the Earth, Serkeh (vinegar) symbolizes patience, Senjed (olives) signals love and, finally, Samanu (pastry paste) is about the power and strength of forgiveness. At the center of the table, a mirror is placed for reflection, flowers to symbolize the Earth's healing, eggs to symbolize life and a fish to represent one's connection to the animal world. Coins as a symbol of wealth. Some families place books by favourite Iranian poets such as Hafez or Rumi.

The themes of health, justice and respect for the Earth seem to be more relevant to the entire world this year than ever before. It is important to reflect on how we can be a part of a rebirth focused on justice that our world so desperately needs.

U15 Rugby vs Harrodian

PPS 19 v 17 Harrodian

On Thursday 17th March PPS u15s made their way to Barnes and took on Harrodian School in a thrilling game of rugby. In the early stages it was clear this was going to be a fast paced and action-packed match. Both teams were making good line breaks and the level of tackling on display was excellent. Harrodian took an early lead with a well worked move in the backs. PPS fought back with great physicality and pace and were unlucky not to equalise when Edwin Hounkanli was stopped just 2m from the try line and the ball was turned over. Harrodian had a period of sustained pressure and scored in the corner to take a 12-0 lead. PPS did not let their heads drop and started to find some rhythm to their attacking play. Charlie Wilson, Sid De Rozario and Ivor Wickham made some solid carries over the gain line and PPS started to build some momentum. The ball was thrown out wide to the backs but once again PPS were stopped just a few metres from the line and the ball was knocked on. Harrodian then scored a third against the run of play, a very frustrating try for PPS to concede moments after they should have scored themselves. Harrodian took a 17-0 lead into half time.

Sports report

At half time the boys were extremely frustrated – they knew they should have scored a couple of tries themselves and felt the score line didn't reflect what was happening on the pitch. The boys knew they were not out of this game, but it was imperative that they did not concede early in the second half and if they could get an early try the comeback would be on! The second half kicked off and PPS showed some outstanding defending with Ivor Wickham, Lloyd Day and Rudy Bigoni making some excellent hits. Three minutes in the ball popped loose and the ball was passed to Edwin Hounkanli who ran in a superb solo try from his own 22! The try was converted by Teddy Faulkner. 17-7 with plenty of time to go, this was the boost the boys needed! You could see the belief and momentum building for PPS and it wasn't long before Leo Newberry scored his own outstanding solo effort from his own half taking the score to 17-12. On his way to the try line, he demonstrated one particularly impressive 'hand off' as he left the defender on the floor and powered his way to the line! Teddy again converted taking the score to 17-14. The game evened out as Harrodian started to try to extend their lead, but PPS continued to defend really well.

The next 15 minutes or so were extremely physical and were generally played between both teams' 22m lines. The breakdown battles were particularly entertaining, and it was PPS who got the better of them overall with Max Buck forcing two turnovers with some powerful work! With 5 minutes to play PPS got their breakthrough through Edwin Hounkanli who touched down in the corner after sustained period of wave after wave of PPS carries. It was a challenging kick for Teddy who couldn't quite convert on this occasion. PPS however were now in the lead, 19-17 with 2 minutes to play. Harrodian received the kick-off and started to throw everything they had at PPS. It was extremely tense, but the boys held strong, forced a penalty and took the win! What a comeback!

This was one of the highest quality games of rugby from a PPS team in recent times. The game was played at an extremely high pace, the boys showed great physicality and there was some excellent skill and technique on show throughout. The PPS defence was particularly impressive, and the boys showed great character to deliver the comeback! It was great to see some different PPS u15 players really step up and make an impact in this game. The usual suspects of Edwin Hounkanli, Lloyd Day, Teddy Faulkner and Lloyd Day all put on excellent performances but a number of boys had by far their best performances in a PPS shirt. Rudy Bigoni put in some superb, leg chopping tackles to stop Harrodian at key moments. Max Buck was a one-man rucking machine who was a constant thorn in Harrodian's side and Lawton Ballbach had a brilliant game at scrum half. Player of the match goes to Ivor Wickham who showed great physicality in attack and defence. He made numerous excellent tackles on some of Harrodian's biggest and most dangerous ball carriers and his enthusiasm was infectious on his teammates.

U13 Badminton vs North Bridge Canonbury

On Monday 21st March PPS took a team of badminton players to a mixed doubles tournament at the Sobell Centre with North Bridge House Canonbury school. The tournament saw 4 PPS pairs take on 4 Northridge house pairs, with each PPS pair playing each of the 4 different Northbridge pairs. Pairs would accumulate points for wins and following the group stages there would be PPS vs Northbridge games to decide 1st/2nd, 3rd/4th, 5/6th & 7th/8th places.

In the group stages PPS played some excellent badminton with each pair working together very well. There was impressive Badminton on display throughout, with players demonstrating a wide range of skilful shots including well weighted drop shots, powerful smashes and some important clearance shots. After the group stages each pair was put into their final game against Northbridge and the results were as follows:

5th / 6th Place Match - NBHC team 2 v Hazuki Kita & Abi Taub – NBHC win (5th place)

7th / 8th Place Match - NBHC Team 1 v Jazz Pochon & Spike Culpin – PPS win (7th place)

When the final scores were calculated PPS ran out tournament winners! Well done to the whole PPS team who put on a great performance in their first ever competitive Badminton match against another school!
